Food Focus: Our Month focus is TOMATOES. Tomatoes support bone health, promotes healthy skin and boost immunity. The Vitamin A in tomatoes aids in improving vision. The average American eats roughly 24 pounds of tomatoes each year. In 1893, the UNITED STATES Supreme Court designated tomatoes a vegetable. Tomatoes are the state vegetable of New Jersey.

A Full Student Lunch includes a choice of entrée supplying protein and grain, vegetable, fruit and a choice of milk
